

Digital Writing Tools for Global Citizens

Program · January 16, 2015

Time	Presenter(s)	Short Bio	Presentation Title
8:00-8:15	Kristen Rouisse introduces Roger Brindley	Vice Provost & Vice President for USF World	Welcoming and Introduction
8:15-9:00	Julie Staggers introduces Chris Anson	Director of the Campus Writing and Speaking Program at North Carolina State University	Digital Tools, Global Audiences, & the Future of Writing Studies Group Discussion
9:00-9:15			Break
9:15-10:00	Laura Runge introduces Valerie Ross	Director, Critical Writing Program at the University of Pennsylvania	Mapping Transfer and the Role of Peer Review in the Development of Reasoning and Writing Competencies Group Discussion
10:00-10:15			Break
10:15-11:00	Dianne Donnelly introduces (1) Joseph Moxley (2) David Eubanks (3) Alaina Tackitt	(1) USF Director of First-Year Composition (2) Associate Dean of Faculty at Eckerd College (3) PhD candidate in English, Rhetoric & Composition at USF	Statistical, Predictive, and Discourse Analysis of 78,000 Peer Reviews Group Discussion
11:00-11:15			Break
11:15-12:00	Meredith Johnson introduces Suzanne Lane	Director of the Writing, Rhetoric, and Professional Communication program at MIT	Tools, Vision, and Design for the 21st Century Classroom Group Discussion
12:00-1:30			Extended Lunch Break
1:30-2:15	Lauren Cagle introduces Christiane Donahue	Director, Institute for Writing and Rhetoric at Dartmouth University	Empirical Research Traditions, Big Data, and Writing Studies: Interconnections and Transformations Group Discussion
2:15-2:30			Break
2:30-3:30	Stephanie Phillips introduces Kate Pantelides	Associate Director of First-Year Writing at Eastern Michigan University	The Takeaway: A Workshop for Moving From Talk to Action
3:30			End

For more information, please visit <http://toolsforwriters.com>. This conference is supported, in part, by the University of South Florida Research & Innovation Internal Awards Program under Grant No. 0021819.

